SUNCOAST CAMPAIGN FOR GRADE-LEVEL READING

PRE-K

A Splendid Friend, Indeed

By Suzanne Bloom

ACTIVITY: POLAR BEAR AND GOOSE FINGER PUPPETS!

SUPPLIES:

- White paper
- Yellow paper
- Google eyes
- Small black pom pom
- Black marker
- Scissors
- Glue

DIRECTIONS:

Polar Bear:

- Trace a circle from a can onto a piece of white paper and cut it out. Trace a smaller circle and cut it out. Cut two small holes out of the bottom of the big circle so you can fit your fingers in them. Save the two small circles. Glue the smaller circle (Polar Bear's head) to the top of the larger circle (Polar Bear's body). Use the two small circles as ears and glue them onto the back of the head. Glue the google eyes and pom pom nose onto the head. Draw a mouth with the marker.

Goose:

- Trace an oval onto a piece of white paper and cut it out. Trace a smaller circle on white paper and cut it out. Cut two small holes out of the bottom of the big circle so you can fit your fingers in them. Cut out two white triangles for wings. Draw and cut out a rounded triangle on the yellow paper for a beak. Draw and cut out two webbed feet on the yellow paper. Glue the circle (Goose's head) to the top of the oval (Goose's body). Glue the google eyes and yellow beak onto the head. Glue the white triangle wings to each side of Goose body and the yellow feet on the bottom of his body.

Read the story again acting it out with your new finger puppets!
