Collaborations and Connections

Calling all shoe and train lovers! Amanda Ward of The Palmetto Historical Society is planning a fascinating hands-on event on April 30th all about transportation. She's looking for shoeboxes for families to make train cars. If you or someone you know can help get this exciting event on track by donating some empty shoeboxes, please reach out to SCGLR at connect@gradelevelreadingsuncoast.net so we can put you in touch. Choo choo!

Helpful Highlights

We are delighted by the outpouring of submissions and are already up to 65 events! And we're looking forward to receiving even more. That's where you come in.

It's not too late. If you haven't yet, please get us all your information by the end of next week. It's easy and fast to complete. You can fill out your 2022 Suncoast Remake Learning Days Event Submission Form here!

Splendid and Silly Spotlight

Most of us think of libraries as quiet places. Most, but not all...because on May 5th, it's going to get Loud At The Library! What?! Yes, the Betty Johnson North Sarasota Public Library has planned a super fun event (sans shushing librarians). We're talking interactive stations related to youth voice and self-expression, plus a free dinner! Now, that's something to make some noise about.
