

The Neighborhood may be off the air, but its lessons are as relevant as ever. To thrive in the age of the algorithm, kids today—and their parents, too—will have to excel at what Rogers taught best: being human.

Yes,
I'm Interested!

When You Wonder, You're Learning Book Circle Project

The Patterson Foundation will provide:

A copy of When You Wonder, You're Learning – Mister Rogers' Enduring Lessons for Raising Creative, Curious, Caring Kids, for each participant

A discussion guide written for Adults with prompts for each chapter of the book (Spanish version available upon request)

A discussion guide Appendix with suggested activities for children that coincide with the themes in each chapter of the book

A certificate of completion for each participant

Each successful book circle will have an option to choose ONE of the following:

1. $400 in support dollars to assist with childcare, snacks, or facilitation and a certificate of completion for each participant
2. $500 Pay-it-Forward award to The Giving Partner nonprofit of their choice and a certificate of completion for each participant
3. Thank you, we don't require any financial support beyond the books, discussion guides, and certificates of completion

Gregg Behr

Ryan Rydzewski

